

So...Let's get to know each other!

I would rather not tell you about myself, because inevitably I'd be telling you what I think about myself. No, I don't think of myself as a terrible person, but your perception of me may differ markedly from my presentation of me. The pages of this blog can provide you with some clues, and if you've read this far, then read on, you may find an interesting idea or two- and better yet, you may be able to share some ideas with me. I'll be ecstatic to hear from you!

I am a current holder of an AA from Valencia College; a Bachelor's of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies from the University of Central Florida; a Master's in Science in Health Care Informatics also from the University of Central Florida, and I'm currently enrolled in the Master in Science Organization Development and Leadership program at Saint Joseph's University. I plan to graduate from this program in Fall of 2021.

P.S. I love biking, my current bike is a Schwinn Suburban AL. I also love gardening, though I haven't done any lately, but the pictures on this link, are from when I was really into it – when I transformed my front yard {the before look} and made it into a garden. A lot of people used to stop and stare! About two years later I changed all that and did this to the front yard. I also love to talk about ideas I find interesting, some of them are on this link. And of yeah! I wrote and self-published my first book of poetry. Karmanoocha, please do get a copy off Amazon!

Why This Blog?

Think of it as a sort of scratching post, a space where I'll share ideas I find interesting {in the spirit of re-growth, scenting and other individualized homo sapiens' markings}. Hopefully a picture will slowly appear. Yes, you'll need to wait for it, and yes, do avoid rushing to judgement about my character, or anyone else's for that matter - and I promise that I'll refrain from so doing myself. I would love it if you commented on what I post here, your comments are welcome for they make this worth doing.

I'll also be using the space to share some of my artwork {Written & Spoken Word} as they demonstrate some of the ideas, I find appealing. After all, our existence is a collective telling of stories; stories we tell ourselves and those we tell each other. I invite you to join me in sharing this journey! I'll also be posting documents related to stuff I've learnt – College and extracurricular certificates – that's the part where I toot that horn! Again, thank you for stopping by! Please come back - and share this blog with others!
